

OUR FAMILY

Dan & Catherine Erickson

A note from Dan

Life is very busy in the Erickson household: Our family of four is always on the go with school, sports and work. Family is everything for Catherine and me, so we're also very involved with immediate and extended relatives – there is never a dull moment!

As fast as each day seems to move, we make it a point to slow down and appreciate this special time in our lives.

MEET OUR CHILDREN

Adam

Adam is our first born. He has a great sense of humor (which occasionally gets him into trouble). He is very kind and cares about other people. We are thrilled about the person he is becoming.

Eladia

Eladia is her mom's "mini-me." She tries her hardest at everything she participates in, whether it's sports or school. She is confident, adventurous and makes friends with almost everyone she meets.

We feel blessed ...

with our lives that we have built here in the Pacific Northwest. We have two unique kids who couldn't be any more different, and we treasure every moment we spend watching them develop into their own people — as well as the few moments they actually enjoy each other's company.

We are excited to see what direction they each determine to be their own!
